

Gyraline Privacy Policy

We believe the right to privacy is important and fundamental to a functioning society. Thus, as we continue to develop our products and services, we aim to maximize the privacy of our users.

Gyraline's products and services may involve or require Gyraline's collection of your data or collection by one or more third parties' products and services. This includes personal data (such as but not limited to email, name and phone number), usage data (i.e., how you use our software), cookies, and other store and advertising centric tracking and data. Gyraline, for example, may share your personal information collected from our websites with third parties, including advertising partners (or advertising partners may share such data with us.) Gyraline's collection may include but is not limited to collection of your data in Gyraline's applications, programs, websites, stores (such as, but not limited to, Apple's App store or the Gyraline website), advertising platforms (such as, but not limited to Facebook, Meta or Google), search engines, payment processors, websites, data stores, devices and/or operating systems. Some of these operations may be considered "sales", "sharing", or "targeted advertising" and may invoke certain privacy protections under certain jurisdictions' privacy laws. Gyraline gives users the option to preference "Do not sell or share my personal information" which is posted on our website.

Our Privacy Policy may change in the future as Gyraline gains features and users. If this Privacy Policy does change, we will notify you on our website, by email, or in the application. Gyraline reserves all rights regarding this Privacy Policy, including to amend at any time and require agreement for the use and/or continued use of any Gyraline product or service. If you do not agree to the current Gyraline Privacy Policy (or the applicable policies of the third parties mentioned above), you must immediately cease the use of and/or uninstall all Gyraline products and services. See your License Agreement and Terms of Conditions for further information.

In any place where there is conflict between this Privacy Policy and (a) any License Agreement and Terms of Conditions and/or (b) any Service Agreement and Terms and Conditions, the License Agreement and Terms of Conditions and/or Service Agreement and Terms and Conditions supersedes to the maximum extent allowed under law. An example of this may be in a Service Agreement and Terms and Conditions for commercial Gyraline products and services.
